Detailed information includes author manual are provided in our homepage.

Submission to PEPS are via the new system from the August 27th, also, review of manuscripts submitted after August 27th are performed in the new system in cooperation with editors and reviewers of our society.

In the meantime, we keep accepting and reviewing manuscripts submitted before August 27th in the previous system and therefore two systems run in parallel for the time being, which may cause some inconvenience to users. We truly appreciate your understanding and support regarding this change.
